CAN / CAN'T

Bir şeyi yapip yapamadığımızı ifade ederken kullandığımız yardımcı fiillerdir.

- Can yeteneklerimizden bahsederken kullanılmaktadır. Türkçe'de -ebilmek, -abilmek ekine karşılık gelmektedir.

- She can design clothes.
- I can help ill people because I'm a doctor.
- He can dance. He wants to be a dancer.
- They can swim fast.
- We can speak English. Because our English teacher teaches us well.
- Olumsuz bir cümle kurmak, yani yapamadığımız şeyleri belirtmek için ise "Can't (can not)" kullanılır.
- I can't design clothes because I'm a doctor.
- A pilot can't defend people.
- A doctor can't grow animals.
- My sister can't speak English well.
- You can't cut hair because you are not a hairdresser.
- Olumlu ve olumsuz cümlelerde gördüğümüz gibi "can" yapısının kullanımı cümledeki kişilere göre değişiklik göstermemektedir. Özne I, He, She, It, They şeklinde de olsa "can" ve "can't" yine aynı kalmaktadır.

WAS/ WERE – WASN'T / WEREN'T

- İngilizcede was - were, am - is - are yardımcı fiillerinin geçmiş zaman halleridir.
- Olumlu cümle kurarken dikkat etmemiz gereken şey, was-were' den sonra fiil gelmemesidir.

I	was	a teacher.
You	were	a student.
He	was	a waiter.
She	was	a nurse.
It	was	a dog.
We	were	students.
You	were	friends.
They	were	in the library.

- Olumsuz cümle kurarken wasn't ve weren't kullanırız. Yine aynı şekilde was, were'den sonra fiil gelmez.

You	weren't	a student.
He	wasn't	a doctor.
She	wasn't	a tailor.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

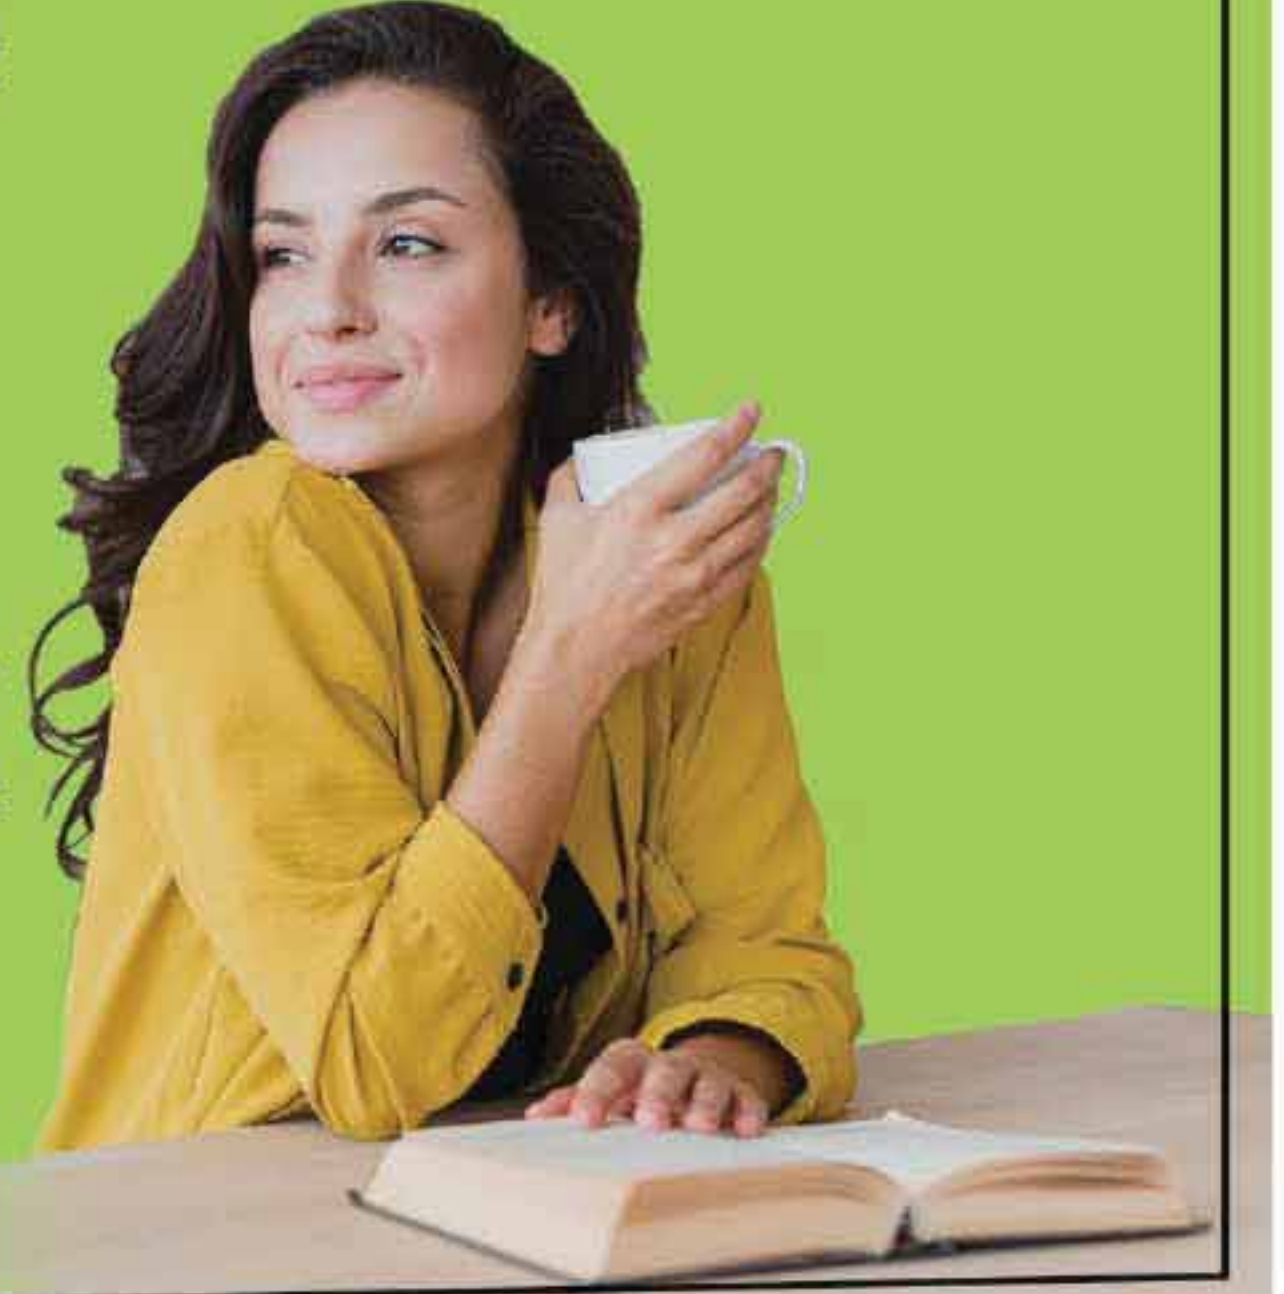

YEARS

İngilizce yıllar yazılırken 2000 yılından önce ve sonra olarak iki farklı okuma çeşidi vardır. 2000 yılından önce sayının tamamının okunması karışıklığa neden olacağından yıllar ikili kısma ayrılarak okunur. Örnek vermek istersek;

- 1910 = 19 - 10 = nineteen ten
- 1412 = 14 - 12 = fourteen twelve

2000 yılından 2010 yılına kadar ise normal bir şekilde okuyabiliriz. Ancak 2010 yılından itibaren yine ikili kısımlara ayırarak okumamız daha doğru olacaktır.

- 2001 = two thousand and one
- 2016 = 20 - 16 = twenty sixteen / two thousand and sixteen

CULTURE CONNECTION

HOW IS FRIENDSHIP IN JAPAN?

"A single rose can be my garden... a single friend, my world."

Leo Buscaglia

We all need friends because humans like being social. It's not easy to find a true friend and trust someone. When you find him or her, your world changes in a good way. Japanese people think like this, too! They have a culture that accepts anybody from any country. They are emotional and they like making friends.

Japanese people are usually shy because they don't want to say something wrong and hurt the other people. If you break the ice for a good conversation, you can talk about famous your hobbies or you can ask about a place, weather condition, etc.

Here is another thing about Japanese people; they don't like making jokes too much. If you are making silly jokes, they won't find you amusing as a friend. Even, family members are too careful when they talk to each other. They try to be respectful every time. So, make sure to cut down sarcasm in your conversations.

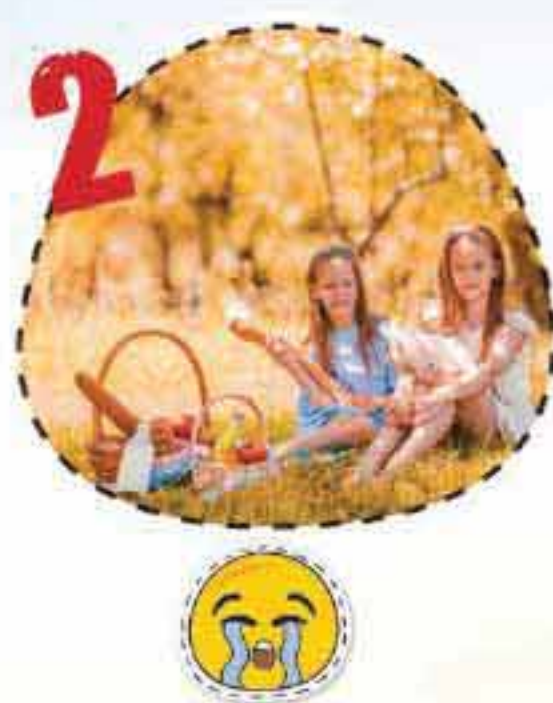

Friendship means a lot to Japanese people. They trust their close friends and respect their opinions. Being polite is the most important thing for them. When they don't agree with a friend, they keep being polite and they explain the reasons. Best friends in Japan never say "no" to a plan directly. They offer another plan not to hurt their friends' feelings.

In Japan, there is a term called "Ningen Kankaei" It is one of the most important term for them. It means "human relations" Human relations is the key of a good friendship. If you care about human relations and think about other people's thought, you can be a true friend not only in Japan but all over the world.

What do you think about friendship?
 What should be the features of a good friend?
 Share your ideas with a friend.

Now time to learn how bestie you are!

If you have less than 4 "always", you are not a good friend. You are selfish and you only think about yourself. You should get on well with your friends and have more time with them. If you want to have more people around you, you should listen to them and keep their secrets. You should invite them sometimes to chit chat and please don't forget: Friends always find an excuse but true friends always find a way to help you.

If you have less than 6 "always", you are a good friend. You are always there for your friends to help but you should do more than that. You should have more time with them. You can go to the cinema, funfairs, bookstores, concerts or festivals to see how much you share the same interests. If you can find what they are, you can spend great time together and you can get the chance to know you each other better.

If you have 6 "always" and more than that, you are truly a best friend. You know how to deal with problems, and you know how to get on well with people around you. You respect them and they respect you back. You are not just a friend; you are always more than that. You back them up when they need you and this makes you a true friend for them. Don't you sometimes think that it is really cool to be loved?
